MEMORANDUM FOR AFSNCOA CLASS 16-E INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

FROM: AFSNCOA

SUBJECT: Welcome Letter for International Students

1. Welcome to the AFSNCOA. You are in for an exciting experience with sister service, coalition partners, DoD senior leaders, and other professionals who are focused on your continuous professional development. Please reach out to Air Force, Joint Force, and international students during the class. This is a great opportunity to broaden your understanding of the global force as well as network and build connections across various countries and branches of service.

2. Please take the following actions upon notification of attendance:

Send an email to sncoa.studentadmin@us.af.mil with your:

- Phone number (Available as you travel)
- Flight itinerary to Montgomery, Alabama

3. Orientation day show time: 1000 Monday, 14 July 2016 in utility uniform, Bldg 1143 at the Kisling Statue.

4. There are no scheduled holidays during this course.

5. On graduation day students may be released by 1200; however it is strongly recommended that departure flights are scheduled no earlier than 1500. Allow extra time if flying from Birmingham or Atlanta (Atlanta is on EST).
